

2-month-old operated for windpipe obstruction

Chennai: A surgery on a two-month-old baby with respiratory problems was performed through thoracoscopy at the Sri Ramachandra Medical Centre. The baby was admitted to the hospital with severe breathing difficulty and a chest scan revealed a swelling between the windpipe and the foodpipe,